

DRESS REHEARSAL SCHEDULE

All dancers must report to Gamm Theater at 8:45am.

Dress rehearsal starts promptly at 9:00am.

Parents, please bring your child into the theater via the marked "Performer's Entrance" door to the left of the main/lobby entrance (under the Gamm Theater signage). Parents may remain in the audience during dress rehearsal and can go backstage to help change your performer into their next costume.

Performers should arrive dressed in their finale costume to save time. Hair should be pulled back but does not need to be "performance ready" unless you are staying through to the first show. You will head to your designated dressing room upon arrival to drop your things and then come to the stage for finale dress rehearsal. You may leave your performer's costumes at the theater between dress and shows.

If you are late to rehearsal and miss your dance we will not be able to redo the rehearsal so please make sure you arrive on time. Dancers must be ready to dance at 9:00, not arriving then.

If you have multiple classes, please change promptly from one costume to the next and return to the audience as quickly as possible. Performers will be sitting in the audience during dress rehearsal in designated rows with their class until they are called on stage for their dance.

The main dressing area is one large room with a single bathroom, dancers will need to change in that area. You can bring a pop up changing tent if you have one*

Once your performer has finished their last routine you are free to leave until you need to be back at the theater for your designated call time.

Upon returning to the theater for your designated call time...

- Bring your child into the theater via the Performer's Entrance Door, they will be checked in and then you can take them to their designated dressing room.
- Once dancers are checked in to their designated dressing room they will not be allowed to leave. This is for safety reasons and to make sure everyone is ready when they are needed. There are bathrooms in the dressing rooms so there's no need to leave the space they are in.
- All dancers should have their hair and make up done. Please pack extra bobby pins, gel and hairspray for hair touch ups and any make-up, especially lipstick, for touch ups between shows.
- There is no food/eating allowed in the dressing rooms. If a dancer is not leaving the theater in between dress rehearsal and shows they may pack snacks or sandwiches to eat during their break but they must eat in the lobby area or outside. NO PEANUTS/NUTS! We have multiple students with nut allergies, DO NOT pack peanut butter snacks/sandwiches or snacks containing nuts of any kind.
- Please be sure to pack water for the entire day.
- Students CANNOT eat or drink in their costume to avoid damaging/staining the costume prior to the performances.

NEW THIS YEAR

Parents will be able to accompany dancers in the dressing room before and during the show if they desire. Please keep in mind, space is tight in the dressing room so the more people in there the worse it will be. If you are planning to go backstage to help your dancer change you MUST adhere to the following rules...

- You can only enter/exit the dressing room from the back entrance (same way you go in for drop off). NO parent will be allowed to use the stairs that lead to the stage.
- You MUST wait to enter/exit the theater until the routine on stage is finished, during a black out, so as not to interfere with other spectators viewing experience.
- You will NOT be able to watch from the backstage area as there will not be room but also there are no wings to view from. Plan to return to your seat once your dancer is lined up to go on.

PRESCHOOL DANCERS - Ages 3-5 ONLY

Preschool dancers will perform in either the first half or second half of the show. During the half they are not dancing in they can sit in parents laps in the theater to watch (they do not need a ticket as they will will not have a seat). Directions as follows...

- A. Preschool dancers performing in the first half will change into their finale costume after they have finished and can come out at intermission. They will sit through the second half and then be brought to the hallway on the left side of the theater (when the second last dance performs) to be lined up to go on for the finale.
- B. Preschool dancers performing in the second half only should watch the first half in their costume and then be brought to the dressing room upstairs at intermission. They will remain backstage until the finale.

Upon completion of the shows...

Dancers will remain on stage at the end of the show, sitting with their classmates. Once the curtain opens parents may come to the stage in an orderly fashion to pick up their child. You may then head to the dressing room with them to retrieve their things and/or get them ready for the next show. Remember, you may go out and/or leave between shows but dancers must be back for show 2 no later than 5:00pm!

Parents will have to exit the theater and re-enter with their ticket for show 2. Dancers will once again get checked in between shows.
